

I live in Indiana and for the first time in a long time we can eat family meals together without being interrupted by unwanted telephone solicitors. Please refrain from policy that would reduce the current effectiveness of Indiana's Law...Thanks